6. Privacy Policy Explanations

St George College is committed to complying with the National Privacy Principles as set out in the Commonwealth of Australia Privacy Act 1988 and any and all following amendments (Privacy Act 1988).

St George College references the 13 Australian Privacy Principles and the information below is the basic function of each of the 13 principles. The full detail of the Principles can be found at <http://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/privacy-resources/privacy-fact-sheets/other/privacy-fact-sheet-17-australian-privacy-principles>

Australian Privacy Principle 1 — open and transparent management of personal information

- 1.1 The object of this principle is to ensure that APP entities manage personal information in an open and transparent way.

Australian Privacy Principle 2 — anonymity and pseudonymity

- 2.1 Individuals must have the option of not identifying themselves, or of using a pseudonym, when dealing with an APP entity in relation to a particular matter.

Australian Privacy Principle 3 — collection of solicited personal information

- 3.1 If an APP entity is an agency, the entity must not collect personal information (other than sensitive information) unless the information is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, one or more of the entity's functions or activities.

Australian Privacy Principle 4 — dealing with unsolicited personal information

- 4.1 If:
- a. an APP entity receives personal information; and
  - b. the entity did not solicit the information;

the entity must, within a reasonable period after receiving the information, determine whether or not the entity could have collected the information under Australian Privacy Principle 3 if the entity had solicited the information.

Australian Privacy Principle 5 — notification of the collection of personal information

- 5.1 At or before the time or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after, an APP entity collects personal information about an individual, the entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances:
- a. to notify the individual of such matters referred to in subclause 5.2 as are reasonable in the circumstances; or
  - b. to otherwise ensure that the individual is aware of any such matters.

Australian Privacy Principle 6 — use or disclosure of personal information

- 6.1 If an APP entity holds personal information about an individual that was collected for a particular purpose (the primary purpose), the entity must not use or disclose the information for another purpose (the secondary purpose)

Australian Privacy Principle 7 — direct marketing

- 7.1 If an organisation holds personal information about an individual, the organisation must not use or disclose the information for the purpose of direct marketing.

Australian Privacy Principle 8 — cross-border disclosure of personal information

- 8.1 Before an APP entity discloses personal information about an individual to a person (the overseas recipient):
- a. who is not in Australia or an external Territory; and
  - b. who is not the entity or the individual;

the entity must take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the overseas recipient does not breach the Australian Privacy Principles (other than Australian Privacy Principle 1) in relation to the information.

Australian Privacy Principle 9 — adoption, use or disclosure of government related identifiers

- 9.1 An organisation must not adopt a government related identifier of an individual as its own identifier of the individual unless:
- the adoption of the government related identifier is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order; or
  - subclause 9.3 applies in relation to the adoption.

Australian Privacy Principle 10 — quality of personal information

- 10.1 An APP entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the personal information that the entity collects is accurate, up-to-date and complete.
- 10.2 An APP entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the personal information that the entity uses or discloses is, having regard to the purpose of the use or disclosure, accurate, up-to-date, complete and relevant.

Australian Privacy Principle 11 — security of personal information

- 11.1 If an APP entity holds personal information, the entity must take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to protect the information:
- from misuse, interference and loss; and
  - from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

Australian Privacy Principle 12 — access to personal information

- 12.1 If an APP entity holds personal information about an individual, the entity must, on request by the individual, give the individual access to the information.

Australian Privacy Principle 13 — correction of personal information

- 13.1 If:
- an APP entity holds personal information about an individual; and
  - either:
    - the entity is satisfied that, having regard to a purpose for which the information is held, the information is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading; or
    - the individual requests the entity to correct the information;

the entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to correct that information to ensure that, having regard to the purpose for which it is held, the information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.
